

Pat Cagle To Represent Peanut Industry In Europe

Pat Cagle, President, Durham Peanut Company, Comanche will be one of two American peanut industry representatives going to Europe soon to study market prospects for U. S. grown peanuts and peanut products.

Ed Gilliam of Prelow Peanut Company in Virginia will accompany Mr. Cagle on a market survey in some countries of Western Europe. Representing the U. S. Department of Agriculture, in this project, will be Mr. Howard Akers.

Mr. Cagle, in addition to being an active civic leader in Comanche, has long been recognized as one of the outstanding leaders in the entire peanut industry. He is past president of the National Peanut Council Board of Directors, past president and former Board Chairman of the Southwest Peanut Shellers' Association and has been selected on numerous occasions to represent the Southwest peanut industry in various activities.

He was the unanimous selection of a nine-member committee representing the three major peanut producing areas of this country, which met recently in Washington to discuss marketing of peanuts in Western Europe and to select a representative for the survey.

Mr. Cagle and the two gentlemen will be in charge of an elaborate peanut display featuring American peanut products during the World's Trade Fair to be held in Amsterdam, Holland during November.

The American peanut exhibit is being sponsored by American peanut producers, shellers, and the manufacturers in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The assignment of the three men, making the survey, will be to determine whether or not U.S. peanuts and peanut products can be sold in increasing quantities in Europe and if so, under what conditions, if they can not be sold, why not.

The group will also determine whether a promotional program for peanut products will be effective.

In stressing the importance of this market survey on peanuts in the European Market, Mr. Cagle said "Peanuts are one of the few agricultural commodities which have no program by and through which it is projected in the European Market. On the other hand, Soybeans and some other agricultural commodities have

56 Countians Have Soil Tested

by ANGUS DICKSON, JR., County Agent

Fifty-six Comanche County farmers and ranchers had their soil tested this past year, according to the annual report of the Texas A&M University Soil Testing Laboratory.

Top three counties in the state were: Hale with 848 samples tested, Harris with 764, and Kaufman with 644 tested.

Floyd Prather, local fertilizer manufacturer and director of Texas Plant Food Educational Society said "The year 1962-63 has been by far the biggest year which we have experienced in soil testing in the State of Texas with 23,973 samples tested. Sample numbers alone, however, are not as important as the use the farmers and ranchers make of their soil test results. Many are taking more interest in soil testing and using soil test as a guide for the use of fertilizer. The result is more net profit per acre from money invested."

Having soil tested is a relative simple procedure. The necessary instructions, forms and mailing boxes are available at the County Extension Office. Garden, lawn, flower beds and field soils can be tested. The fee is $2.00 per soil test.

Upon receipt of the soil at the College Station laboratory, the extension soil chemist analyzes the soil, then sends back a written report on the test. Giving the soil reaction (pH) organic matter—both percent and relative level, predicated Nitrogen level, phosphorus (p205) in pounds per acre and level, Calcium (Ca) in pounds per acre and level, and Soluble Salts. Also fertilizer recommendations for crops and plants to be grown next year.

Late fall and winter is an excellent time to take soil samples and have them tested in preparation for next year's lawns, gardens, flowers, and field crops. A soil analysis is still the cheapest and most convenient method for determining fertilizer needs, and as a guide for investing more profitably in a fertilizer program.

The forecast this week: Granbury at COMANCHE CISCO at De Leon TEXAS at Arkansas BAYLOR at Texas Tech So. Methodist at RICE Aggies at TCU Llano at BRADY MASON at Fredericksburg San Saba at COLEMAN Stephenville at GRAHAM

Postal Receipts Up; Changes Made In P.O. Personnel

Postmaster James E. (Jim) Carver announces postal receipts for the first postal quarter are up approximately 19% over the same period last year. This gain in receipts is reflected almost entirely due to increased postage rates which went into effect in January this year.

Personnel Changes

Several changes in personnel have been made recently due to the retirement of Troy Marshall, carrier of Route 5, Comanche. The changes are as follows:

J. F. Hallmark, carrier Route 1, reassigned to Route 2. Mrs. Alice Mae Jones, carrier Route 2, reassigned to Route 5. Gayle Rippetoe, distribution clerk in the office, transferred to Route 1.

Boy Boyd, substitute clerk, promoted to regular distribution clerk.

One position, temporary substitute clerk-carrier, is to be absorbed by present office force with no appointment to be made, the postmaster said.

Mrs. D. Chas. Clarke, Comanche Resident For Sixty Years, Dies

Mrs. D. Chas. Clarke, 89, 509 N. Austin, passed away at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 12, in a local nursing home.

Funeral rites for Mrs. Clarke were held at 10 a.m. Monday, Oct. 14, in the First Presbyterian Church here, with Rev. Bill Gould, former pastor, now of Abilene, officiating.

Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery, under direction of the Comanche Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Herbert Williams, Tom Burton, Bob Allen, Armstrong Cox, Jack Moore, William Chilton, Tom Foreman, and Herman Rauhut.

Mrs. Clarke, the former Ada St. Clair, daughter of the late J. D. and Elizabeth Keith St. Clair, was born February 6, 1874 in Erath County.

Mrs. Clarke, resident of Comanche for the past 60 years, was converted early in life and was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Clarke served as organist for the local Presbyterian Church for many years. She was a charter member of the Comanche Garden Club and the Comanche Study Club.

She was married October 19, 1892 to D. Charles Clarke, and they were the parents of two sons and three daughters. Mr. Clarke passed away June 30, 1966. A son is also deceased.

Mrs. Clarke is survived by a son, Hugh St. Clair Clarke of Dallas; 3 daughters, Mrs. Hardy Slider of Comanche, Mrs. Catherine McCartney of Houston, and Mrs. J. R. Burns of Anaheim, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth St. Clair, Houston of Pasadena, Calif.; 13 grandchildren, and 29 great-grandchildren.

TP&L Official To Address Lions Club

Lenard Sowell, Public Information representative for the Texas Power & Light Co. will be the guest speaker for the local Lions Club next Tuesday night, October 22.

Mr. Sowell, a native of East Texas, is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin Southern College. He is a former school teacher, and has spoken on various occasions throughout Texas.

The Comanche Indians open defense of their District 8-AA title here Friday night, hosting the Granbury Pirates in the first conference game of the season for both elevens. Kick-off time will be 7:30 in this 8-AA tilt, and in all district games throughout the season.

The Indians have taken their lumps thus far this season—dropping all five non-conference games—but Indian fans remember last season when the locals dropped the first five games, then came back strong and went through an undefeated 8-AA schedule to capture the district title.

Indian fans, coaches, and players alike are encouraged by the improved physical condition of the Indians for the conference opener. The injury-riddled squad still has a couple of members missing, and others will not be in full strength but will be in the best shape for any contest in a month.

Feist Is Ready

Don Feist, the Indians leading ball carrier despite missing three of five games on offense this season, is due to get the call at quarterback this week—and seems ready to go both on offense and defense. All-District Halfback Jerry Foreman's injured ankle is improved, and he will see defensive action. Rickie Henry, who suffered an elbow injury in the Lampasas game, is ready again—and due to start at an end post. Billy Williams, guard and the squad's punter, who also missed the Llano game due to an ankle injury, has returned to action.

Granbury, in five starts this season, holds two victories as compared to three defeats. The Pirates beat Burleson and Glen Rose, and dropped decisions to Stephenville, Decatur, and Mansfield.

"We are counting on a good effort by our boys this week," says Head Coach Roger Oliver, who says his charges are out to surprise a few people. The Indians thus far this season have scored only 14 points to 129 for the opposition.

But the Indians have a much better team than the records show—and a large crown of Indian partisans, along with Comanche's 90-piece show band are expected to be on hand to help cheer them on in this important District 8-AA opener. Coach Oliver is planning some Indian line-up changes, and will likely start: Rickie Henry and Charles McNutt, ends; Charles Wright and John Cunningham, tackles; Freddie Chappel and Billy Williams, guards; Skipper Shumpes, center; Don Feist, quarterback; Larry Harbour, fullback; Larry Bonner, halfback, and Don Kemnitz or Tommy Willis, wingback.

PLANNING GRID STRATEGY—Comanche mentors, Head Coach Roger Oliver and Assistant Pete Hobby and Ray Smith, have been working hard trying to devise ways to stop Comanche's losing streak at five straights—as they prepare to defend the 8-AA conference title in their opening district game hosting the Granbury Pirates Friday night. Against non-conference foes, the Indians repeated their 1962 season record of 5 losses, but last season came back to finish five straights and take the district title.

De Leon Moved To Class A For Next Two Years

De Leon, Comanche's long-time conference foe, will be moved from Class AA to Class A for the next two years, according to an Intercollegiate League announcement.

The Bearcats will play in the Class A district with Eastland, Ranger, Albany, Clyde and Baird.

The District 8-AA, which has included De Leon for several years, will be changed to 7-AA next year, and will be composed of Cisco, Comanche, Dublin, Hamilton and Granbury for the next two years.

De Leon dropped to Class A about ten years ago, but returned to Class AA after two years.

For many years prior and during World War II, Comanche's conference opponents were Hico, Gorman, De Leon, Dublin, and Hamilton. Other conference opponents in years past include Brownwood, Stephenville, Mineral Wells, and Brownwood.

The new 7-AA 1964 conference football schedule is listed elsewhere in this issue.

Those who strive for more shall attain success.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICES: $3.00 per year, $1.75 for 6 months in Comanche County and on rural routes of Dublin, German, Guntersville, Carbon, May and Taylor, $4.00 per year, $2.25 for 6 months elsewhere in Texas. $4.50 per year, $2.50 for 6 months outside Texas. An estimated crowd of 8,000 school teachers will be in Fort Worth October 24-26 to attend the 85th annual convention of the Texas State Teachers Association.

C. O. Chandler, superintendent of schools at Victoria, is president of the Teachers Association and will preside over the meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Little, Corpus Christi, current vice-president, was the only announced candidate for president.

However, four other candidates campaigned actively for the vice presidential post which almost automatically leads a year later to the head position.

One of these candidates is Joe W. Harper, former superintendent of the Comanche schools, who is now superintendent at McKinney.

The other candidates for vice president are W. A. Carmichael, professor at Sam Houston State College, Huntsville; Bennie F. Steinhilber, superintendent Edgewood Independent District of San Antonio; and Buford W. Williams, director elementary education at Southwest Texas State College, San Marcos.

Actually the voting already has taken place and the delegates will head a report on the results of the annual election for TSTA officers at the Fort Worth convention.

The secret balloting was conducted locally earlier this month so that all teachers in Texas would have a right to vote, even though they do not attend the TSTA convention.

It used to be that most of the teachers in all the larger schools attended the State convention and the occasion was one of the highlights of the school year, and for many, was their only vacation of the year.

But the TASTA grew so big that now mostly just delegates and some school officials attend.

Most of the training and inspiration that the teachers used to get at the Teachers Association Convention is now done in the smaller section groups, such as the Heart of Texas Educational meeting held each year at Brownwood where many of our local teachers take an active part.

The first general session of the TSTA is at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 24. Among those attending will be some 900 official delegates, who will be busy until they wind up the convention with the House of Delegates business session Saturday, Oct. 26, at 9 a.m.

The delegates will represent more than 85,000 TSTA members, who are now divided into 13 districts and 369 local unit organizations covering most every school in the State.

Registration for the convention will begin at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, October 24. Speaker for the first general session that evening will be Dr. Charles L. Allen, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Houston, which claims to be the largest downtown church in the South.

Dr. John Alanson Perkins, the president of the University of Delaware, will speak at 9 a.m. Friday. Both sessions will be in the Will Rogers Memorial Center Auditorium.

"The Sweetest Music This Side of Heaven" will entertain TSTA members Friday night, October 25 at 8 o'clock when Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians play a special concert in the Memorial Center Coliseum.

At various times Friday the convention goes will divide into small groups for 29 meetings, dealing with special fields, such as science, lunchrooms, industrial arts, classroom teachers and principals.

The House Delegates on Saturday, Oct. 26, the last day, will act on resolutions setting TSTA policy. They will also consider committee reports of such things as professional standards and improving educational services.

Delegates will also discuss proposed school legislation including a proposal calling for a $40 per month increase in the minimum teacher salary schedule. If approved, it will be presented to the 66th Texas Legislature meeting in 1945.

Texas teachers salaries have been increased several times during the last decade but still are not up to the national standard.

Other convention activities will include booths of educational exhibits by commercial firms, various committee meetings and numerous gatherings of other related groups.

Local school boards of Comanche County and their superintendents, principals and faculties are keeping abreast with the educational progress of the state and nation and now rank among the best in Texas.

The State Health Department has issued a warning to housewives not to use too much suds in dish washing. The Health Department says the use of too much suds in dish washing is harmful.

"Housewives normally wash dishes three times per day in a sink full of suds. A flip of her wrist when the dishes are done, and the dishwater vanishes down the drain. The dishwasher, laden with suds, creates a problem for those who handle the water disposal."

"Meanwhile, hopes are high among the public health engineers, that soap manufacturers and researchers will find an early solution of the suds dilemma. Different processes for degrading or removing the suds are under development."

"Ironically, modern detergent suds have no function of cleaning clothes or dishes like they did when grandmother made her own soap in the back yard. Public opinion, however, still equates the billowing suds with the false belief that they have cleansing power."

Five Comanche County students were among the 3,850 students to register for the fall semester at Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos. They are Judy Burks, Alfred Evans, Lanell Goerdel, Carolyn Goodson, and Jimmy Walker.

Central West Texas Milk producers will receive $5.36 per hundred for 3.5% milk delivered in September 1963. This is 13c more than the price for August and 39c greater than the price for September 1962.

During the month of September 1963 there were five motor vehicle accidents in Comanche County with one personal injury, but no deaths. The property damage in four accidents totaled $1,300.

President John F. Kennedy is coming to Texas around November 22 to help lift the 1964 Democratic Presidential campaign off the launching pad in this state, says Governor John Connally.

Fifty-three insurance companies have joined the State-wide cooperative, authorized to write health insurance for citizens over 65.

Among the first senior citizens to sign up for the new Texas 65 insurance were Governor John Connally's mother, Mrs. J. B. Connally of Floresville, and his father-in-law, Arno Brill of Austin.

See your local insurance man for details on this insurance before the first period of enrollment ends on October 31.

A GOOD NAME
The Bible says that "a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." This truth is very well expressed in an editorial in one of our exchanges last week. It was written by Paris Ross several years ago, reads as follows:

lows:

"More than all earthly things is an untarnished name, yet how easy a good name is lost, and how very hard to regain after it has been destroyed by just one bad deed."

"How do you treat your name? It is the most precious thing that you have. It is closely connected with all your are and ever hope to be."

"Your name carries the life history of hundreds of men and women."

"Write your name on a piece of paper and look at it for a few minutes and then think where you got your name."

"Your father gave it to you; he had in his youth many temptations to soil his name, but he wore it ever like a white plume over his heart."

"One day your father went and offered his hand to a beautiful young woman; she blushed and hesitated; then her father and mother inquired if the name he offered was a good name."

Finally she accepted your name and she did not wear her engagement ring with half the pleasure that she did in claiming your name."

"Then they gave that name to you. Your name was sung into your baby ears on the music of your mother's cradle song."

"Your name was taken to the throne of God in the sweet prayers and hopes of your mother. It is ever sacred."

"Your father looked into your baby face and breathed a sigh of pride as he thought, 'Now I have given my name to a human soul and I must care for this young life that carries my name out into the world for the span of a human life.'"

"I must live so that my life will be a worthy pattern for him to follow, for a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."

How do you treat your name? Is the local merchant glad to see your name on his credit books? How does your banker feel when you induce him to loan you some money? Will he have to discount your paper because your name is not worth 100%?

If the pastor of your church ever wrote a line after the names on his church roll, what would he put after your name?

If a great moral question were to arise in your community involving right and wrong, would your community know what side you were on without asking?

If you and I in our poorest moments were given the choice of riches to anything else, would we take riches?

History reveals that every man who has gotten riches at the sacrifice of his good name has lived to regret it. May God help us all to realize the great value of a good name."

God did not say that there was any harm in riches if they were secured honestly and we paid Him His tithe as provided for in the Bible.

During World War II, Texas A&M College (now University) according to a survey made by The New York Times, furnished a greater proportion of its graduates as commanding officers of the armed forces of the United States than any other college or university in the USA.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Last week we discussed two of the proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution which are to be voted on in a special election to be held Saturday, Nov. 9.

The first amendment proposal would eliminate the requirement of a poll tax payment in order to vote and to empower the Legislature to provide for the registration of all voters.

The second proposed amendment provides for elimination of a residence requirement and allowing more expenditures from State funds for the needy aged, the blind, needy children, and disabled persons. This amendment does not have anything to do with our social security payments, but only refers to welfare payments.

The third proposition on the ballot deals with retirement funds in political subdivisions within Jefferson County, and reads as follows:

"For or Against the addition of Subsection (c) to Section 62 of Article XVI of the Constitution, to authorize all political subdivisions within Jefferson County to establish after the approval of the voters, a retirement, disability and death compensation fund, covering all appointive officers and employees of said political subdivisions."

This proposal would add a new subsection to our constitution providing for retirement, disability and death compensation to those political subdivisions within Jefferson County, but it leaves remaining parts of the state.

It would not even affect whole of Jefferson County, which Beaumont is the seat, but only those subdivisions within Jefferson County.

A new billing schedule will cause Comanche customers of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. to receive their future gas bills at a new time of the month, the company reported today.

The revision is a result of the company's conversion to an electronic billing system. The company's new data processing center eventually will receive meter readings from all of Arkla's nearly one half million customers. They will be calculated and bills will be forwarded at a uniform rate of 25,000 a day, 20 days a month. To achieve this result, it was necessary to revise some meter reading and billing dates, including those in the Comanche District.

The last bill under the old system for all Comanche customers will be due October 10. The next gas bill for some residents will be received about October 19, and will be due November 1. Another group of Comanche residents will receive the first gas bill calculated by the computers about November 4. It will be due November 14.

The Comanche District now will have two different reading and billing schedules each month. The residents in the district will receive future gas bills around the fourth or the 20th, depending on their location.

The new bill will show exactly the number of days covered by the meter reading. The new system also will assure a customer's due date falling on the same work day each month. There will be no more than three days variance in the meter reading schedule from one month to the next.

With the time saved by the electronic system, bills also can be processed and mailed to customers nearer the actual meter reading dates.

The increasing growth and corresponding complexity of the company's accounting system made the adoption of data processing desirable. The result will be more accurate and more complete information through a facility which can be adapted to handle whatever future requirements are demanded.

The electronic center, located in the company's general offices in Shreveport, La., includes the latest computers, machines and equipment available. It is valued at more than $1 million.

The last of the more than 80 gas distribution districts in the Arkla system will be converted to the processing center by November.

A man can't live a full and satisfying life until he is prepared to accept the unexpected as a possible source of trouble.

Electric Co-Op Honors Employee With Party

The Comanche Garden Club Center was the setting on Saturday night, October 5, for a most enjoyable annual dinner, evening's fellowship and entertainment for the employees, directors and families of the Comanche County Electric Cooperative.

This year, specifically honoring Mrs. Sally Bishop, long time employee of the Eastland area office, the occasion reflected a note of sadness because she has been a part of the organization for so long and is now retiring to take things easy.

A very delicious meal was prepared and served by the Garden Club ladies to a large number of employees and directors, along with their families. A special guest for the occasion was Mrs. Bishop's son, Jack Bishop and family of Dallas.

Following the meal, Mrs. Bishop, who is retiring after more than 22 years employment as cashier of the Eastland office, was presented a lovely ornate wall clock by Manager W. J. Parks as a gesture of appreciation for loyal and conscientious work with the Cooperative throughout her long tenure of employment.

"We regret to see her go, but wish her many long hours of leisure in the day ahead," said Manager Parks.

After the presentation, everyone enjoyed playing bingo until a late hour.

Here From Austin
Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Silvers of Austin spent the week-end here visiting her mother, Mrs. O. O. Brightman and other relatives and friends.

Raw milk can be produced with a bacteria count of under 10,000 per cc with average conditions on Texas dairy farms. And with a little extra care in washing, cleaning and sanitizing equipment it can be reduced to less than 3,000. Milk temperature, the health of the cows, milking equipment, udders and teats, and the milking parlor should be checked when unusually high bacteria counts persist.

Visit in Canyon
Mrs. Piez Todd and Lou McCallough spent the week-end in Canyon visiting with Jerry Todd who is enrolled in West Texas State University.

Alrman Casey Gustine Seniors With Aerospace Plan Supper, Girl Defense Division Grid Game Friday

The following self-explanatory letter was received recently by Mrs. Ruby Casey from Headquarters, 9th Aerospace Defense Div., USAF, Ent Air Force Base, Colo. Mrs. Ruby L. Casey, 204 North Travis, Comanche, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Casey,

Your son has recently been assigned to the 9th Aerospace Defense Division. I would like to take the opportunity to welcome you as "unofficial members" of our division and also to explain some of the details of your son's new job and the overall mission of the 9th.

Your son will be working in the Division's office of Operations. In his new assignment he will be serving as administrative specialist. This is an important job in an organization vital to our nation's defense.

The 9th Aerospace Defense Division is the world's first full-time aerospace defense organization. We have a two-fold mission. Our first responsibility is to alert the North American continent in the event of a missile or satellite launched attack. Our second primary function is to receive, process and catalogue data on all man-made objects in space.

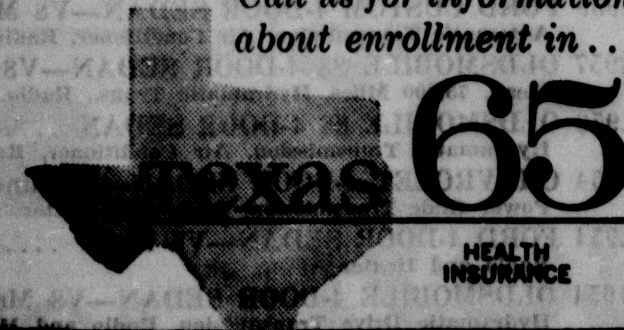

I am sure that your son will enjoy his assignment in Colorado Springs. He will find his job challenging and interesting. We are very glad to have him with us.

Sincerely,
David B. Tudon,
Colonel, USAF

NEWS for truck owners who need a new one now

Things Chevrolet has developed since the last time you bought to give you more for your money:

Double-wall construction. This feature of Chevrolet cabs and the Fleetside pickup body has two advantages. Insulation and sound-deadening material is sandwiched between the two layers of steel in the cab to give you more comfort; in the body, the lower inner wall acts as a buffer against load damage, preserving the outer appearance of the truck.

Suspension to fit the truck. Conventional half- and three-quarter-ton models have independent front suspension with variable rate coils in the rear. Variable rate coils do not "bottom out" as readily.

Mediums and heavies have I-beam suspension with variable-rate leaf springs. It automatically stiffens as the load increases—and vice versa. It means a smoother, flatter ride regardless of load, a better handling truck.

The right engine. Chevrolet never has been in better position to give you the type and size you need for maximum efficiency. Today there are many different capacities of gasoline and diesel

Chevrolet truck engines—fours, sixes, V8's.

Stronger frames. Every conventional 1964 Chevrolet truck has a ladder-type frame. This type is more resilient, better able to give with the load and terrain. Its simple design also makes it easier to mount special bodies on the truck. Its riveted side rails are stronger.

Greater model selection. This time you're going to find it a simple matter to pick the exact type of Chevrolet truck for the kind of work you do. In delivery trucks, for instance, in addition to regular panels and pickups, we have eleven different sizes of ready-made walk-in vans, some with full-width rear doors.

Quality and value. Chevrolets today are a lot more truck than your money bought the last time, and yet the price tag is just about the same as 5 or 6 years ago. Call your Chevrolet dealer for information or for a demonstration.

Frank Power Nemed As FFA PR Man

by BOBBY LANE
Franklin Power, past president of the Comanche FFA and of the Cross Timbers FFA District, was chosen by the State FFA advisor to act as one of the public relations representatives of the FFA at the FFA Barnyard exhibit at the State Fair of Texas.

Frank left Comanche Monday morning to go to Dallas and work in the tent-covered Barnyard Exhibit until Wednesday explaining the FFA program for rural youth to the many visitors of the Fair. The Barnyard Exhibit consists of the mother and her young of the many farm animals that are common on most farms, but are practically unknown to many of the city youth of the metropolitan areas of Texas.

The Barnyard Exhibit is one of the most popular exhibits on the Fair grounds. Fair officials say that the Barnyard has more visitors than any other single exhibit on the grounds. A permanent building is planned for the FFA Barnyard to replace the circus-like tent where it is now shown.

The Comanche FFA Chapter is proud to have one of its members chosen to work on the State level to represent the Future Farmers of Texas. Congratulations are offered to Power upon having been chosen for the honor.

Many products have been used to control pests on agricultural crops. Lime-sulphur, compounds of arsenic, lead, mercury and copper, coal tar products, soap, petroleum products, and plant extracts such as pyrethrins, rotenone, and nicotine are among them.

Home For Week-End

Several University of Texas students, after seeing the Texas-Oklahoma football game in Dallas Saturday, visited their parents in Comanche. They were Stanley Rauhut, Jimmy Wilkerson, Johnny Huett, and Grady Earl Hall.

... school districts, hospital districts, water districts, navigation districts, and other similar districts.

The amendment would give each political subdivision within Jefferson County the following plan, to set up its own retirement plan, or join the county retirement system of Jefferson County, which already exists under the constitution. Each political subdivision would determine whether it would adopt a retirement plan, and if so, which plan it would adopt.

These things could be done only by a special election approved by a majority of the voters of the subdivision.

It is our belief that every person during his active working years should be covered by social security or some other kind of retirement pay, but whether this particular amendment is a good proposal or not should require study.

If you don't understand an amendment or are not sure you are for it, we believe it is better to vote at all on the question, or vote against it.

There are some further explanations of this amendment as set forth by the Texas Industrial Commission at Dallas:

If such a fund should be adopted by the voters of any subdivision within Jefferson County, the amount contributed by the subdivision out of tax funds would be to "at least equal" the amount contributed by each person covered.

This implies it could exceed the amount contributed by any person, so long as it did not exceed the specific limitation of 5% of the amount paid to each person by the political subdivision.

The amount of money which would be contributed to such a fund by this proposed amendment is substantially different from the amount allowed to a county retirement system under Section 10 of Article XVI.

The county contribution must not exceed, but it may not exceed, the contribution of any employee or executive official.

The contribution may not exceed more than 5% of the person's salary and it may not exceed $100 for any person during a year's time.

The conflict between these provisions would make it impractical for any political subdivision within the Retirement System of Jefferson County unless it applied the lower limitation applicable to the county.

The money for the Retirement fund could be invested in bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or counties or cities of the state or in bonds issued by the United States government, or payment of principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States.

Then, during the statutory period, the pension plan would be a political subdivision, such as a Municipal or City Employees, County Employees, Police, Firemen, Judges, District Employees (Retirement).

It is to be noted that there could be a considerable overlapping of the pension benefits, and although it could seem that a political subdivision could only receive one such pension benefit, the pressure would be to select for selection the plan which offered the most money. All plans would require the expenditure of tax revenues.

The proposed amendment would provide that recipients from any such fund would be eligible for any other pension retirement fund or direct aid from the State of Texas, unless the amount contributed to the Retirement Fund by the political subdivision was released to the State as a condition to receiving other pension aid.

While this amendment would apply only to political subdivisions of Jefferson County, it is important to taxpayers of the whole state.

If it is adopted, it will probably be the forerunner of similar proposals to be effective in other counties.

It is of general interest also because it poses a problem of equity between county employees and those of the various political subdivisions in a county.

It would allow higher contributions resulting in higher benefits for employees of city, navigation or other districts than employees of the county could receive. It would allow the districts to contribute more to the fund than their employees do, while county contributions are fixed at an equal amount.

The fourth and final amendment to be voted on in the November 9 provides more bonds for the Veterans Land Fund, increasing the interest rate and extending the life of the program.

The wording of the ballot is as follows: "For or Against the amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas, to increase the Veterans Land Fund by $15,000,000; said funds to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the armed forces of the United States between September 10, 1940 and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

This proposal would extend the Veterans Land Program and ad-

THE COMANCHE CHIEF

BRIDE-ELECT—Mr. and Mrs. William Michael Sullivan, Comanche, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Freddie Fay, to Iris Malcolm Edmondson, son of Mrs. I. M. Edmondson and the late I. M. Edmondson, Comanche. The ceremony will be performed by Nelson Stark, minister of the Church of Christ, N. Pearl St., Comanche, at 4:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary on Friday, November 22. The bride-elect attended Comanche High School and will graduate from Gary's Beauty College, Brownwood, in November. The prospective groom is a 1961 graduate of Comanche High School, attended Tarleton State College, Stephenville, and is now employed here by Clemons Motor Company.

$150,000,000 to the Veterans Land Fund.

Originally these bonds could not charge an interest rate of more than 3%. In 1960 it was increased to 3½%. The amendment requires that the interest should not now exceed 4½%.

Since 1946, when the Veterans Land Program was first adopted, more and more farmers have moved to the big cities seeking better paying jobs.

A total of 143 Texas counties lost population from 1950 to 1960.

The State's industrial growth and its population gains have been centered in the big cities and larger towns.

The small farm does not provide the satisfactory life to as many people as it once did, but the farmers who have ample land now enjoy just as many luxuries as do their city cousins and often much better. However, larger tracts of land and more expensive machinery are now necessary for profitable operation on the farm.

If the land is bought for speculative purposes, such as industrial growth or development of minerals, or if it is purchased in the larger tracts necessary for successful farming, the maximum rate of interest might be raised to 5½%.

Here is some more discussion of Amendment No. 4 as furnished by the Texas Industrial Conference, 334 Fidelity Union Tower, Dallas:

The proposed amendment provides that the bonds shall be general obligations of the State of Texas and inserts the provision now covered by statute that in order to prevent default in payment of interest on any such bonds the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to repay them.

The effect of providing for legislative appropriation is to make them unlimited tax bonds, which entitles them to a better rate in the bond market.

The amendment would write March 31, 1955 into the Constitution as a cut-off date governing the eligibility of veterans.

Land could be sold, as provided by law, to veterans who served not less than ninety continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940 and March 31, 1955.

At the time of his enlistment, induction, commissioning or drafting the veteran would have to have been a bona fide resident of the State of Texas.

On the date of filing his application to purchase any such land the veteran would have to be a citizen of the United States, a bona fide resident of the State of Texas and not have been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the armed forces nam-

Responsibilities of the Veterans' Land Board would be increased by this proposal. When the program ends would depend largely on the Board's judgment of demand for veterans' assistance and on its timing of the sale of bonds.

It would undertake a new and quite different financial responsibility in determining how much interest rate a series of bonds should bear, and in arranging their repayment so that none of the bonds in the series would pay, on an average, more than 4½%.

New powers of the Board in connection with the subdivision of land resemble those of a real estate development business. These new powers would include authority (1) to construct roads, (2) to pay the cost of surveying and monumenting the land and the tracts thereof, (3) to pay legal fees, recordation fees and advertising costs arising out of the purchase and sale of land and (4) to pay other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale of such land.

This expense would have to be added to the price when the land was sold or resold by the Board. New legislation, to be effective if this amendment is adopted, would remove the existing sales must be given for four weeks requirement that notice of such in one or more newspapers of general circulation.

It would also remove the existing preference rights of a person disabled by a service-connected disability sustained in combat, to purchase any such land within ninety days after it is placed on the market by the Board.

By terms of a constitution provision adopted in 1963 and retained in this proposed amendment the Board, after land have first been offered for sale to veterans and have not been sold, may then sell to the general public in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as may be provided by law.

If a non-veteran becomes the purchaser, under the constitutional amendments and the act he is treated in substantially the same manner as a veteran.

The Board has the authority here to make rules and regulations to govern such matters.

These new and broader powers impose upon the Board a heavier responsibility for diligence and judgment in steering a course dedicated solely to the needs of veterans.

The amendment spells out qualifications of the two citizen members of the three man Board. One of the citizens must be well-versed in veterans' affairs and the other must be well-versed in finance.

The third member of the Board would continue to be the Commissioner of the General Land Office and he would act as Chairman and Administrator of the Veterans' Land Program.

After delineating numerous detailed provisions as to how the Veterans Land Fund will be administered, the proposed amendment then describes itself as only a basic framework and would grant to the Legislature the full power to implement and effectuate its design and objectives.

It would permit the Legislature to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions and authority to the Veterans Land Board as it believed necessary.

The Board could, if it was so authorized by the Legislature, promulgate regulations having the effect of law somewhat in the same manner as can various federal bureaus.

through the Agriculture Department in Washington, made tremendous progress in the European Market.

This results in millions of dollars worth of Soybeans being sold in the European Market. Of course, this is a tremendous help to the growers of Soybeans, and contributes greatly to the economic development of the Soybean producing area.

Other agricultural commodities that are making a good progress in the foreign market are too numerous to mention.

Therefore those people connected with the various phases of peanuts, beginning with the producer, and including the ware-housemen, shellers, peanut oil industry, brokers, manufacturers of peanut butter, confectioners, and roasters, all are unanimous in support of a move now being made by the Department of Agriculture with the assistance of representatives of all phases of the peanut industry, to organize and project a plan and program through and by which a foreign market for peanuts and peanut products can be realized.

Plans call for the 3-man industry team to manage the peanut display at the Amsterdam Fair, during November, then return to Washington D.C. for a meeting to formulate the ideas gained during the survey.

The three men will then return to Western Europe during January and February to put some of their ideas into effect and Etheredge, director of information and education of the Parks and Wildlife Department, at the Young Farmers Association monthly meeting to be held Tuesday night, Oct. 22, at the Comanche Vocational Agriculture Building.

This program was chosen because of its possibilities for supplemental income without an extensive investment increase.

Brantley Smith Wins Chief's Weekly Football Guessing Contest

Upsets in some of the top college games plus the 28-21 Lake View-Hamilton tie made it a hard week on most forecasters in The Comanche Chief's weekly football contest.

Brantley C. Smith, Comanche, who was one of several missing three games, was winner of first prize—with his closest prediction to the exact score of the Texas-Oklahoma game. He picked the Longhorns to win 17-7; the score was 28-7.

Second place winner was Henry Spalding, Sidney vocational agriculture teacher; and the third place prize goes to Melvin Harkins, Comanche barber.

On the honorable mention list, also with three misses were: Ruby Hall and Kenneth Hagood, Comanche, and Paul Ray McKinzie, Austin.

Missing four games, but nevertheless getting honorable mention, were: Charles Hicks, Enid, Oklahoma; Blanche Reid, Graham; Dr. Terrell Sharp, De Leon; Sherman Side, De Leon; Carl Walker, Sidney, and John Wilson, Mary Ruth Ross, Roy Pope, Mrs. W. I. Dixon, Ronald Fisher, and Effie Lee Cloud, Comanche.

Games most frequently missed besides the Hamilton-Lake View tie, were SMU's win over Navy, Baylor to trip Arkansas, Dublin's defeat of Decatur, and Texas to beat Oklahoma.

But there's another contest this week. First prize is $5 cash—and runners-up receive a year's subscription to The Chief. Just turn to the football page, circle the winners, and mail to Football Contest, Box 192, Comanche—or bring 'to The Chief office before next Thursday.
